

Palmerston District Primary School and the P&C welcome MICHAEL GROSE

Michael offers a range of practical and hands on advice about parenting for resilience, parenting for independence, strategies for raising well-behaved children and advice at what stage to “let go”.

Michael’s sessions support and align with our KidsMatter program and our Student Wellbeing procedures. We aim to build strong families and communities that are inclusive of children and young people.

We look forward to connecting with families and the community to welcome Michael for this occasion.
